

The AAC Subcouncil on Academic Integrity unanimously supports Dean Wunderlich's request for two additional student vice chairs as well as his request to expand faculty slots, from 3 to 5—one per division and one at large.

The following changes in the italicized statements would implement these recommendations—recommended deletions indicated by strikethroughs

Composition of Honor Council

The Honor Council shall normally consist of at least ~~42~~ 14 students, the Dean of Studies and ~~3~~ 5 faculty members. New members of the Council will be selected and seated in the Spring Term of every year. Students serving on the Honor Council must be in good standing.

Honor Council positions will include a student Chair and ~~two~~ four student Vice-Chairs (one of whom will serve if the Chair is not present). Student representatives to the Honor Council will be nominated through the Committee on Committees. The application will include an essay explaining the relevance of the applicant's experience and why the applicant seeks a position on the Honor Council. As part of the application process, the President of Student Forum and ~~(except in the first year)~~ the Chair of the Honor Council shall interview all candidates and make recommendations to the Committee on Committees, which shall decide which students to appoint to the Honor Council. ~~Except in the first year~~ The positions of Chair and Vice Chair are reserved for students who have had prior experience on an honor council, or on the Committee on Standing of Students. Students will serve one year terms with a possibility of renewal.

Faculty representatives to the Council will be elected following current faculty governance procedures for other elected positions. Faculty members will serve three year terms. ~~Among the faculty representatives, one will be from Center I~~ one from each division (Social Sciences, and Arts and Humanities faculty), ~~one will be from Center II (Science and Mathematics, and Engineering and Computer Science faculty),~~ and one will be at-large.
