Section VI – VI (Declination of Salary or Stipend)

Remove the word “two” from the phrase, “... it will be necessary for the following two conditions to be pertain”. There are four conditions rather than two, so the current wording is incorrect.

Current Language:

In any case in which an employee (part-time or full-time) or speaker wishes to give any or all of a salary or stipend received from the College back to the College, it will be necessary for the following two conditions to pertain:

New Language:

In any case in which an employee (part-time or full-time) or speaker wishes to give any or all of a salary or stipend received from the College back to the College, it will be necessary for the following conditions to pertain:
