Off campus shooting incident
1 message

Rave Alert <union@getrave.com> Tue, Jul 10, 2018 at 3:10 PM
Reply-To: Rave Alert <campussafety@union.edu>
To: underwol@union.edu

Earlier this afternoon a shooting was reported in the vicinity of Union Street and Brandywine Avenue, more than one mile east of the Union College campus. The whereabouts of the suspect is currently unknown.

Information is that the suspect did not head in the direction of campus. Local police agencies are searching throughout the city for the suspect.

No current viable description of the suspect has been provided. There is no indication that there is a threat to the Union College community.

Link to CBS6 news story below.