These QR codes and map can be used with your mobile device as you walk to various vantage points on the campus, where you can learn about life at Union College during 1895-1904, through information and stories from the letters of Mrs. Perkins. Take this page with you and use your mobile device to scan the QR code. Descriptive text and images will then appear for each vantage point.