Biographic Note:

Joseph Hinchey received a Bachelor of Science degree in electrical engineering from Union College in 1947. He then worked for the companies, General Dynamics and Texas Instruments before returning to school to study law. He graduated from the Boston College Law School in 1980. Hinchey joined the company, Analog Devices and became senior vice president. Hinchey also served on the Union College Board of Trustees from 1986 to 1998. In 1994, he was elected as the board's chairman and served as the chairman until his retirement in 1998.

Scope and Content Note:

This collection documents Hinchey's activities as a member and chairman of the Union College Board of Trustees. The material in the collection dates from 1983 to 2001 with the bulk of the material from the late 1980s and early 1990s. The collection includes: commencement programs; papers related to the presidential search and selection in 1989-1990; the 1990 Campus Plan; material related to the Restore the Nott Student Initiative; information about the college's Navy Program, Visiting Engineering committee and Graduate School of Management; a description of the college and miscellaneous material including photographs of Hinchey and a newspaper clipping. The collection is arranged alphabetically by subject.
