

SPRING TERM ABROAD IN GERMANY: FREIBURG & BERLIN

Two tracks: Track One – No language prerequisite.

Track Two – At least two terms of German, beginning with Ger100 in the Fall.

- Spend Spring Term in one of Germany's most romantic Black Forest towns as well as in its trendy metropolis and capital!
- Experience the lovely university town of Freiburg, with its cafes and markets!
- Explore the diverse Black Forest region, with its stunning vineyards, refreshing lakes and lively beer gardens!
- Find out why the Economist magazine called Berlin, with its vibrant culture, rich history, and dazzlingly nightlife, “poor but sexy”!
- Visit Jewish historical and cultural sites; learn about the richness and complexity of Jewish heritage in Germany!
- Begin or develop your abilities in German, no matter what your level! Courses available to suit all levels-- for beginners to advanced speakers.
- Trek across Germany together during our days of travel; visit exciting cities such as Munich, Salzburg, Dresden, Leipzig, & Hamburg; experience Germany’s natural beauty along the way!

See the International Program’s website for more information about the program format and the application process! Also, contact Professor Bell (riccibem@union.edu) or Professor Nelson-Mukherjee (nelsone@union.edu) with questions!