To All Incoming Freshmen Students:

On behalf of Union College Hospitality and all the future familiar faces at your favorite places to dine on campus, I want to personally say welcome to Union College. We are excited to bring you the freshest, in-season, authentic and chef-inspired dishes that are designed to please every palate.

We have a variety of dining promotions, programs and events that will occur each week and often times each day so get involved early and take advantage of all that we have to offer!

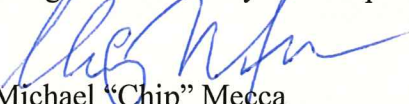

Your dining options at Union are as diverse as they are delicious. You will find many offerings such as our Sushi Bar [Ushi] located in the Campus Center, The Rathskeller, (the ever popular late night hangout that is home to the famous Deadbolt sandwich), some incredible new dining options at WEST and our O3 Café, serving local, organic, and/or sustainable sandwiches and salads just to name a few!

As you learn your way around campus, please know that we are always available to answer any questions relative to your dining experiences at Union. You can also visit our website at www.uchospitality.com. Once there, you will find weekly menus, locations, hours of operation, meal plan information, and much more.

If you have dietary restrictions or food allergies, we encourage you to make an appointment with our Campus Executive Chef, Patrick Longton (longtonp@union.edu) to tour our dining facilities.

Look for Union College Hospitality on Twitter, Facebook & Snapchat for all the latest and greatest dining news, events, and promotions.

Congratulations on your acceptance to Union. Our doors are always open, stop by and say hi!
