Acceptance by Union College of any offer from Vendor is expressly limited to the Purchase Order as written, and Union College hereby objects to and shall not be bound by any additional, different or conflicting terms, whether printed or otherwise, in any other communication between the parties.

3. ACCEPTANCE OF THE ORDER. The Purchase Order is valid only as written, and shall not be valid unless it has been processed by Union College’s Purchasing Department and authorized by Union College. By accepting the Purchase Order, VENDOR acknowledges each and every term and condition set forth herein as binding upon the VENDOR. If any terms or conditions of the Order are unacceptable to VENDOR, UNION COLLEGE must be notified, and any additional or differing term or condition must be specifically accepted by both parties in a separately signed attachment. Any claim for adjustment by the VENDOR shall be deemed waived unless asserted within thirty (30) days from the receipt by the VENDOR of notice of the change. Nothing contained in this clause shall relieve VENDOR from its obligation to proceed without delay in the performance of this Order as changed.

7. SUBSTITUTIONS. VENDOR will make no substitutions without the written consent of UNION COLLEGE. If VENDOR recommends a substitution, VENDOR guarantees that the substituted material is at least equal in appearance, durability, function, capacity, and ease of maintenance to the goods specified in the Order.

Neither receipt of, nor payment for, goods and/or services shall constitute final acceptance of title to same. UNION COLLEGE may reject any or all items that are non-conforming, as determined in UNION COLLEGE’s sole reasonable judgment. Any goods not conforming to the Purchase Order shall be returned at VENDOR’S sole expense, and VENDOR assumes the risk and expense and shall bear the risk of loss or damage to such goods.
