

Are You Interested in Being A Summer Resident Assistant?

Being a Summer Resident Advisor (SRA) is not only a fun experience, it's an opportunity to be a positive role model and a student leader with students living in your residence hall. The SRA position is an opportunity to learn essential skills and responsibilities that will be valuable in your education and in your professional career. Summer Resident Advisors are key student leaders who help advance the mission of the Office of Residential Life in the areas of personal development, student learning outside the classroom, global responsibility, and engagement and service to the community.

The Roles & Responsibilities of the Summer Resident Assistant include but are not limited to the following:

- Develop a sense of community and respectful environment for students living in the residence hall.
- Establish and maintain relationships with residents by being available and approachable in the residence hall.
- Plan and implement a social program bi-weekly.
- Create a set of door decorations for your summer residents.
- Respond to emergency and critical incidents involving residents related to health, safety, and security issues.
- Foster communication and community among residents and fellow staff members.
- Communicate regularly with Residence Director (supervisor).
- Maintain a positive attitude and support for Residential Life and Union College while working as an agent of the College.
- Confront and document College and Housing policy violations in the Residence Hall.
- Demonstrate appropriate and responsible behavior at all times, both inside and outside your designated hall, and follow all policies and procedures set forth by the College.
- Complete Room Condition Reports for each room in your building.
- Complete all administrative paperwork required.
- Conduct check-in's and check-out's as students are moving in and out of their rooms each term.
- Balance time and responsibilities of SRA position, academics, and extra-curricular activities effectively.
