

The Union College Concert Series Presents

A UCALL Special Event

Belcea String Quartet

Sunday, October 14, 2018

3:00 PM – Memorial Chapel

Join your UCALL friends for a special opportunity to attend a wonderful concert by the Belcea String Quartet and a post-concert reception with the musicians.

The Belcea String Quartet performs regularly in Carnegie Hall and has come to Union every other season for over ten years with good reason. In residence at Vienna's legendary Konzerthaus, the Belcea's unique combination of profound musicianship and virtuosic playing make it one of the leading quartets in the world. Their October program includes works of Haydn and Janáček and concludes with Beethoven's famed Op. 130 quartet with the Große Fuge.

Your registration for this event includes complimentary admission to the concert and an invitation to a post-concert wine and cheese reception in Old Chapel. UCALL members are invited to bring guests for a fee of $30.00, which includes one ticket to the concert and an invitation to the wine and cheese reception.

Concert Series parking is available in the Nott/Seward lot located at the corner of Seward Place and Nott Street. A shuttle service to and from the Nott/Seward lot will be available one hour before the start of the concert, at the end of the concert and after the reception.

Please register by October 9th. To register, complete and return the form below to:
