This form is used by families who have experienced a change in financial circumstances after the 2022 tax year. Our office will use all provided information to evaluate your need for additional financial assistance based on your special circumstances. Qualifying factors might include an unusual expense, a loss of income, or a divorce. Situations we will NOT consider: the inability to liquidate assets, consumer indebtedness, mortgage payments, property taxes, or home repairs. Please be as specific as possible when providing dollar amounts. We will not review forms that are incomplete or that are not accompanied by supporting documentation.

Change in Circumstance

Please select the box that best describes your situation:
