

Cognate courses

Psychology majors are allowed to count one of the following courses as a psychology elective course, fulfilling one of the 12 psychology courses needed for the major. ID majors may not count a cognate course toward the 8 psychology courses needed for their major. Psychology minors also may not count a cognate course toward one of the 6 courses needed for the minor.

ANT 214: Language and Culture

ANT 222: Childhood in Anthropological Perspective

ANT 225: Gender and Society

ANT 272: Psychological Anthropology

ANT 373: Self & Life History in Anthropological Research

CSC 103: Taming Big Data

CSC 106: Can Computers Think?

CSC 206: Natural Language Processing

CSC 280: User Interfaces

CSC 320: Artificial Intelligence

CSC 329: Neural Networks (Same as ECE 329)

ECO 229: Introduction to Behavioral Economics

EGL 275: Autobiography

ENG 281: Environmental Psychology and Place Attachment in the American Literary Landscape

MLT 230: Madness and the Mad in Russian Culture

MLT 250: Language, Identity and Power Japan

PHL 180: Theories of the Good Life

PHL 232: Philosophy of Science

PHL 249: The Self in Cyberspace

PHL 365: Philosophy of Mind

PHL 462: Philosophy of Language

PHY 051: Seeing the Light: Concepts of Vision (Same as BIO 051)

PSC 361: Political Psychology

REL 204: Religion & Neuroscience

SOC 204: Social Construction of Deviance

SOC 206: Aging and Society

SOC 212: Sociology of the American Family: Cross-Cultural Perspectives

SOC 360: Domestic Violence

SOC 374: Mental Health and Society