Moon and stars wonder
Where all the people gone
Alone in hiding
-Albretch Classen

My brain wanders to
All the corners of the world
I sit and do work
-Isabella Russell

I talk to my screen
Interview? Insanity?
We'll shake hands someday
-Charlotte Ruth Mineo

Clear morning
My feet in a stream
Of sunlight
-Mary Stevens

A bonfire of hope
Sparks of selfless sacrifice
One team, all heroes
-Patrick Olson

We acknowledge that we live, work, and study at Union College on the traditional homelands that were originally peopled by the Iroquois Confederacy, including the Cayuga, Mohawk, Oneida, Onondaga, Seneca, Haudenosaunee (The People of the Longhouse), and other tribes. What we call Schenectady is a Dutch version of a Mohawk word skahnéhtati, meaning 'The Place Beyond the Pines.' As a College, we honor the land itself with gratitude and acknowledge the people who have stewarded the land throughout the ages.
