Join your UCALL friends on a bus trip to The New York Botanical Garden. The NYBG is a 250-acre everchanging showplace of natural beauty and wonder. Its vast plant collections are displayed in gardens and landscapes. We will view Kusama: Cosmic Nature a multivisionary presentation of the work of celebrated artist Yayoi Kusama. Kusama's art is revealed in multiple installations including organic forms, polka dotted sculptures of colossal flora, mesmerizing nature-based painting. We will enjoy the spectacular Kusama's horticultural showcase in the Enid A. Haupt Conservatory and at various outside installations. We will also be there at a perfect time to explore the seasonal flora of the many gardens in the park, which in May will include numerous beautiful spring flowers of the Northeast. Upon arrival there will be guided walking tours inside the conservatory. We will follow with lunch at the National Historic Landmark Stone Mill. After lunch there will be guided tram tours to the installations of Kusama's art and opportunities to explore the spring gardens before we return home on the bus.

The price of $194.00 (member) and $204.00 (non-member) per person includes transportation, tours, lunch and gratuities. The coach will leave Union College at 7:30 a.m. on Tuesday, May 19th and will return at approximately 10:00 p.m.

Register by April 20th. Registrations will be accepted on a first-come first-served basis. Priority registration for UCALL members will run through March 20th.
